

Join Us

Bus Tour led by D. Bradford Hunt

Special Field Study

Public Housing's Past and Present in Chicago

Date: Saturday, October 3, 2009

Location: Bus leaves from the Chicago History Museum
1601 N. Clark Street
Chicago, IL 60614

Time: 1:00 – 4:30 pm

Admission: $25

To Purchase Tickets*: <http://www.chicagohistory.org/planavisit/upcomingevents/lectures#uhs>

Special Field Study: Public Housing's Past and Present in Chicago

Join the Urban History Seminar's Field Study of public housing in Chicago, led by D. Bradford Hunt of Roosevelt University, author of Blueprint for Disaster: The Unraveling of Chicago Public Housing and National Public Housing Museum Board Member.

The bus tour will explore the site of the future National Public Housing Museum, examine a new mixed-income public housing development first-hand, and hear from residents of Wentworth Gardens, a renovated public housing development.

**Seating is limited*

This event is being held in partnership with the Chicago History Museum

...the power of place and memory to illuminate the resilience of poor and working class families of every race and ethnicity to realize the promise of America.