

Join Us

Breakfast Conversation and Book Signing
with Henry G. Cisneros

From Despair to Hope

Hope VI and the New Promise of Public Housing in America's Cities

Date: Friday, September 25, 2009
Location: Jane Addams Hull House Museum
800 S. Halsted Street
Chicago, IL 60607
Time: 8:00 am
Admission: Free

RSVP by September 23 to: rsvp@publichousingmuseum.org

Join us for a breakfast conversation with Henry Cisneros, Former HUD Secretary, National Public Housing Museum Advisory Board Member and Executive Chairman of City View.

Mr. Cisneros will discuss his latest book, From Despair to Hope: Hope VI and the New Promise of Public Housing in America's Cities.

Roberta Feldman, Ph.D., Director of the City Design Center at the University of Illinois at Chicago and Lewis Jordan, CEO, Chicago Housing Authority will also contribute to the conversation.

This event is co-sponsored by:

Tours of the future home of the National Public Housing Museum, located at 1322 W. Taylor Street, Chicago IL, will be available immediately following the book signing.