

Lecture and Panel with SERGIO PALLERONI

Affecting lasting change through design build activism

Tuesday, October 20 2009, 6:00 p

Graham Foundation

4 West Burton Place

This event will be free and open to the public.

RSVP to tdavis32@uic.edu

Sergio Palleroni is an architect, professor, and fellow at the Center for Sustainable Practices and Processes at Portland State University and is internationally known for his social and environmental activism, and for providing sustainable design solutions to communities in need. Palleroni is also co-founder of BASIC Initiative, a service learning program for students in various partner universities.

INTRODUCTION

Roberta Feldman (Founding Director, City Design Center, UIC)

MODERATOR:

Keith Magee (Founding Executive Director, National Public Housing Museum)

PANELISTS:

Paul Roldan (Chief Executive Office & President, Hispanic Housing Development Corporation)

Julia Stasch (Vice President, Human and Community Development, John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation)

To be confirmed

SPONSOR:

Richard H. Driehaus Foundation

PARTNERS:

ADPSR, Archiprose, LL Consulting, SHED Studio,
Urban Habitat Chicago

PRESENTED BY:

Converge:Exchange

what communities, activists and practitioners can teach each other

CITYDESIGNCENTER

UIC College of Architecture & the Arts

NATIONAL PUBLIC HOUSING
MUSEUM