

The National Public Housing Museum
In collaboration with The Department of Performance Studies at Northwestern University and eta Creative Arts Foundation

Present

Emergency!

Daniel Beaty's acclaimed one-man performance on race, nation, and identity

Monday, November 16

Where: eta Creative Arts Foundation
7558 S. South Chicago Avenue
Chicago, IL

Time: 7pm

Tickets & Information: 773.752.3955

Tuesday, November 17

Where: Northwestern University
Wallis Theatre
1949 Campus Drive
Evanston, IL

Time: 7pm

Tickets & Information: 312.545.3656

- What does centuries of slavery do to the psyche?
- How free are we really at the dawn of the 21st century?

2006 - A slave ship rises out of the Hudson River in front of the Statue of Liberty sending the nation into a whirlwind of emotion and exploration. Award winning artist Daniel Beaty portrays a cast of 40 characters, including a homeless man, a scientist, a republican business executive, a street vendor, and an 11-year old boy from public housing who all respond to the phenomenon. Through the characters' individual responses to the ship and their varied testimonies on identity and personal freedom, Emergency!

Museum in the Streets

presented by  BOEING

Northwestern University
School of Communication

Department of Performance Studies

NORTHWESTERN
UNIVERSITY