and the City of Chicago Present:

"The Role of Men in Public Housing"

Twenty Years Later

A Journey through the Years with Alex Kotlowitz and Pharoah Rivers

There Are No Children Here chronicles two years in the lives of two boys, Lafayette and Pharoah, struggling to survive in Chicago's Henry Horner Homes, a public housing complex disfigured by crime and neglect. The book which became a national bestseller was chosen by the New York Public Library as one of the 150 most important books of the century.
